ATC

ATCs stands for Art Trading Cards. They are miniature art pieces, typically 3,5 inches wide and 2,5 inches high, between a perforated top edge and a demonstrative bottom edge. The artwork is created by hand. When created, they are normally sold in sets of 10. ACEO's that are sold in sets of 10 are called Editions and are numbered 1-10.

On a Double-Sided ATC, one person sends the card to a second person. The second person signs the top of the card and returns the card to the sender. On the ATCs, the sender signs and the receiver receives and creates the artwork.
